

Ceres Cook

Management and Inventory Operator

About Me

I'm a seasoned management professional who is passionate about problem-solving, teamwork, and continued learning. During my experiences, I've cultivated my strengths in data analytics, project management, and leadership talent development. I am currently enrolled in The Ohio State's Full Stack Web Development certificate program. In my free time, I'm often listening to music, gaming, and trying new restaurants.
